

SUMMER DISCOVERY 2025

LEVEL UP AT YOUR LIBRARY!

Name(s): _____

I am filling this out as a(n):   ☐ Group      ☐ Individual      ☐ Family

Ages (Check all that apply): ☐ Preschool ☐ Elementary ☐ Teen ☐ Adult

For every 30 minutes you read or each discovery activity you complete, cross off a space below. The ones already labeled "READ" must be completed by reading-- and yes, audiobooks count! The rest are free spaces, so you can read OR pick an activity that interests you.

Once all the spaces have been filled in, bring your log to any APL location by JULY 31-- finishers will be entered into prize drawings! Please note: Only residents of the Municipality of Anchorage are eligible to win grand prizes.

GO BEYOND READING!

Need some inspiration for filling the open spaces?
Try one of these fun activities:

- Make your own board game! Whether it involves a game board, trivia, matching, or drawing, all you need to get started is an idea, some paper, and something to write with.
- Challenge a friend to a reading contest! Maybe you want to see who can finish a book first, maybe you want to keep track of how many pages you read-- gamify your reading experience and make it fun!
- Create your own puzzles! Making your own puzzles can be easy. You can either buy some puzzle blanks online or draw on a piece of paper and cut it up.
- Attend a D&D program at Loussac Library! If you're 14 or older, you're welcome to join us for our monthly D&D program for teens and adults. Learn to play in a casual and fun environment. All ages and skill levels welcome.
- Create your own tabletop role playing game! Whether you decide to use the common D&D 5E system or explore another one (including Warhammer 4E, Cypher System, FATE, and more), writing your own playable campaign is easier than you think.
- Host a game marathon! Get your friends together and play old favorites or learn a new game together. This could be done with board games, video games, tabletop role playing games, sports... the goal is to have fun with your friends!

WEEKLY EVENTS

Looking for fun activities to do this summer? Visit your local Anchorage Public Library location for free, weekly events in June and July! Full schedule is available online.

Loussac: Tuesdays at 2:30PM

Gerrish: Wednesdays at 3:30PM

Chugiak-Eagle River: Thursdays at 12PM

Mountain View: Thursdays at 4PM

Muldoon: Saturdays at 11:30AM

READERS TO THE RESCUE

Finished your log early? Grab a Readers to the Rescue sheet and keep tracking your reading minutes!

If the community can log 200,000 extra minutes, the Friends of the Library will donate school supplies so Anchorage kids have what they need for school!
